Brief Report

The Bhoomitrasena Club of Payyanur College organized a training program on mushroom cultivation and spawn making, followed by an interactive session with Rahul Govind, a distinguished entrepreneur and Millennium Farmer Award winner.

Training Program: The training program provided hands-on experience and theoretical knowledge on mushroom cultivation and spawn making.

- Substrate preparation and sterilization
- Spawn production and inoculation techniques
- Environmental control and pest management.

The training program aimed to equip students with practical skills and knowledge, enabling them to cultivate mushrooms sustainably and contribute to environmental conservation.

Interactive Session:

The interactive session with Rahul Govind was a highlight of the event. As a renowned entrepreneur and farmer, Mr. Govind shared his experiences, insights, and expertise with the students. He emphasized the importance of innovation, hard work, and dedication in achieving success.

During the session, students posed questions and engaged in discussions on various topics, including sustainable agriculture, entrepreneurship, and environmental conservation. Mr. Govind's inspiring words and advice motivated the students to pursue their passions and strive for excellence.

Outcome:

- Enhanced knowledge and skills in mushroom cultivation and spawn making
- Inspired students to pursue sustainable agriculture and entrepreneurship
- A deeper understanding of environmental conservation and sustainability
- Provided a platform for students to interact with a renowned expert and learn from his experiences
