Brief Report

Bhoomithrasena Club, KE College in association with Department of Botany conducted an exhibition cum sales of plant-based products developed by the students on 5th March 2024. The program was inaugurated by Dr. Ison V Vanchipurackal, Principal, KE College, Mannanam. Organic vegetables and ornamental plants produced by our students at their home were exhibited and put for sale. Students also prepared food items from underutilized vegetables and tubers of Kerala. The event successfully evoked the importance of organic farming, a gri-entrepreneurship and the use of underutilized food resources of Kerala for a healthy sustainable lifestyle
